Event Report

On the occasion of International Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery on 13th February, the Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery of MGM Dental college and Hospital organized a Lecture on "Basic Surgical Skills" followed by a hands-on workshop on suturing in association with Johnson & Johnson and Ethicon On 11th February 2022.

The session began with an enlightening lecture on "Suturing Materials and Techniques" given by Dr. Sunil Sidana and Dr. Chinmay Rao. Followed by the lecture the hands on workshop was conducted where the BDS Interns and MDS Post-Graduate Students were demonstrated about how to don a surgical gown and also the process of gloving by Dr. Suraj Ahuja and Dr. Chinmay Rao. After this, the demonstration of all the suturing techniques were given in a very detailed manner by Dr. Suraj Ahuja, Dr. Chinmay Rao and Dr. Padmakar Baviskar. All the interns were provided with the armamentarium and were asked to practice the different suturing techniques post the demonstration under the guidance of the demonstrators.

The workshop emphasized on the idea that the process of suturing, on the surface, appears to be a simple affair, however, suturing can also be the most critical stage of surgery. Learning this skill is imperative to carry out the suturing process effectively. Overall it was an exceptionally fruitful session for the budding dentists.

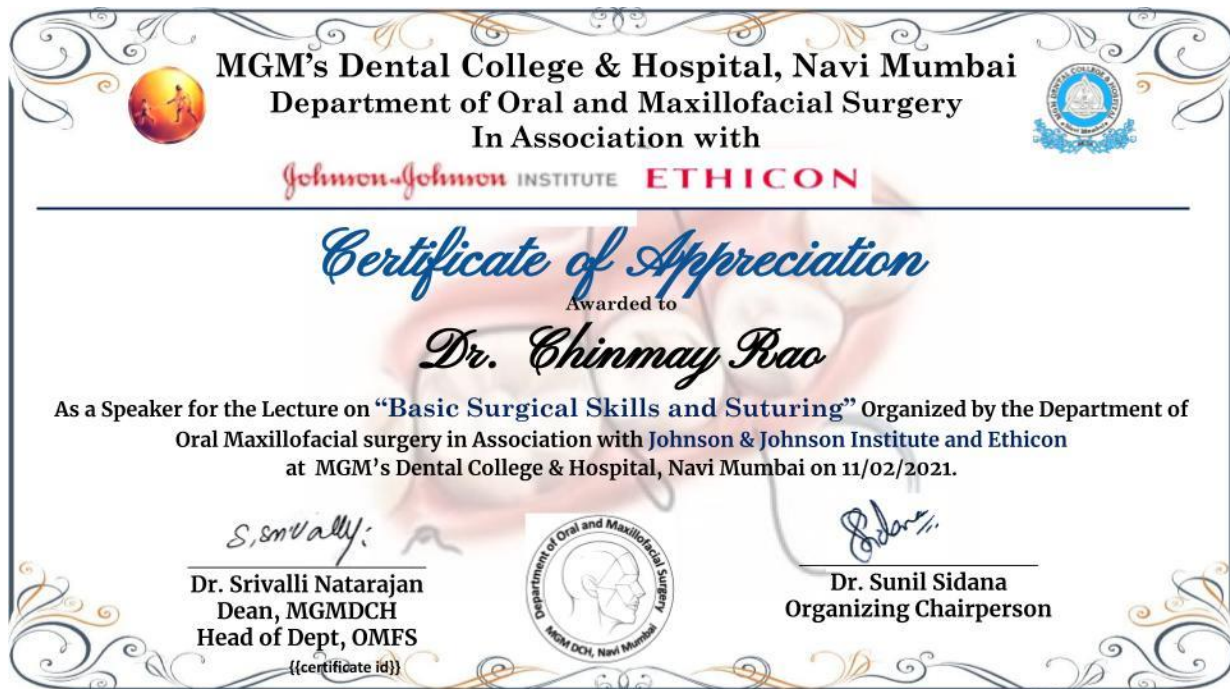

Additionally a Video Presentation competition on the Theme of "Perks of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon for the Folks" was organized. Video Entries from students were displayed on the occasion. The videos were based on patient education and making the common people more aware. Banners depicting the scope of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery were displayed in the college premises.
